JUDGE HOLMAN'S REMARKS. Judge Holman, after being elected, said:

atlemen of the County Court:

You have quite overcome me; my heart i oo full for utterance. On former occasions t has been my high privilege and unbounded bleasure to return you my grateful acknowlgments for confidence expressed in me, and nors bestowed upon me. And whilst at all es keenly appreciating every mark of aprobation shown me, honest candor compels the declaration that no previous act of yours has so deeply touched my heart, so com-pletely and wholly filled the full measure o my pride as has your present unanimous ac-tion in re-electing me your presiding officer, and the financial agent of Shelby county for the ensuing year. When I reflect that many of you have known me for six years, that during that long time our official intercourse has been unrestrained and close, that all of you are gentlemen of position and high character, I must construe this indorsement into something more than an empty compliment or unmeaning ceremony. My only regret is that I cannot bring to the position abilities and qualifications commensurate with the Varied and responsible duties imposed. But it will be my constant aim and earnest ambition to perform my whole duty, and to prove worthy of a confidence so full, so generous, and whatever the misty future may have in and whatever the misty future may have in store for me, however different our path-ways in life may hereafter be, the fond recollections of my associations with you, the courtesies always extended, the honors in your power Lever withheld, will constitute a galaxy of bright memories which will never grow dim, until the last ruddy drop that visits my heart shall leave my bosom cold and pulseless. Again tendering you my heartfelt thanks, and invoking upon you the choicest blessings heaven can bestow, I announce this court as permanently organized.

RANDOLPH'S RAMMER.

Crammer and Crasher-The Cheeklest Attempt yet Made to Bulldoze a Democratic Member of Congress.

The Defeated Radical Candidate for Congress will Contest Casey Young's Sent-The Grounds of this Contest-A Bulldozing Statement.

Colonel William M. Randolph, the defeated Radical candidate for congress in the tenth congressional district, composed of the counties of Shelby, Hardeman and Fayette, has notified the Democratic member elect, Hon. Casey Young, that he would contest his right o a seat. The protest of Colonel Randolph To Hon. Casey Young:

You will take notice, that I intend to contest your election to a seat in the house of representatives of the forty-fifth congress as member from the tenth congressional disa member from the tenth congressional dis-trict of the State of Tennessee, for which you and I were rival candidates at the election held on the seventh day of November, 1876, and to insist that I am entitled to the seat, and shall rely upon the following grounds in the "contest." Colonel Randolph then speci-fies twenty-seven "grounds," of which the following is a synonsis:

following is a synopsis:

First—False returns from the Bartlett precinct, where Randolph alleges that he received more than 400 lawful votes and Mr. Young less than 145; he claims that the false returns gave him but 81 and Mr. Young 276.

Second—At Raleigh he received more than 380 lawful votes and Mr. Young less than 165; whereas by false returns he is given but 239 and Mr. Young 307 votes.
Third—At the Old Union precinct, in the tenth district, the ballots were not counted or numbered by the judges and clerks, nor were they counted at the place where the election was held nor on the day of election, nor were the poll-books certified by the judges or attested by the places as the law disease. or attested by the clerks, as the law directs; while receiving not less than 75 lawful votes and Mr. Young not exceeding 127, he is by alse returns given only 35 and Mr. Young Fourth-At the Collierville precinct, in the tenth civil district of Shelby county, more than fifty lawful votes cast for him were un-lawfully counted for Mr. Young; moreover, more than fifty lawful voters tendered their ballots for him (Randolph), but were rejected, and the said voters refused the privilege of The fifth, sixth and seventh grounds are hat by unlawful and vexatious challenging o awful voters on the part of those advocating Mr. Young's election, and by the delays con-sequent thereupon, and by the failure to oper the polls at the time prescribed by law, and by the unlawful refusal of the votes, then and there tendered the election officers, and by the failure to provide the necessary facili-ties to enable all the voters to cast their votes, he (Randolph) was deprived of more than one hundred and fifty votes in the tenth ward polls in this city, more than one hundred law ful votes in the fifth ward, more than seventy five lawful votes in the seventh ward. contestant avers that lawful voters in the bove named numbers were at the polls mentioned, and desirous of voting for him, and were doing all in their power to cast their ballots for him, but were unlawfully prevented from voting.

The eighth, ninth, tenth, and eleventh grounds are to the respective effect that Mr. Young received more than 150 unlawful votes third ward, more than 200 in the fifth ward, and more than 100 unlawful votes in the different wards in the city of Memphis. Twelfth-More than 100 persons were allowed to vote twice for Mr. Young, and about him (Randolph) by the ignorant or wilfully adverse decision of the officers of election. Thirteenth-More than 130 persons, no lawful voters, were allowed to cast their votes for Mr. Young at Grand Junction, in Harde man county. Fourteenth-More than 50 persons, no in the second ward, more than 200 in the lawful voters, were allowed to cast their ballots for Mr. Young at Somerville, Fayette county.

Fifteenth and Sixteenth—Grounds are spectively that, in the second civil district of Fayette county, 50 votes cost for Randolph were counted for Young, and in the third civil district of the same county 40 votes cast for Randolph were counted for Young. Seventeenth, eighteenth, nineteenth, twen-tieth and twenty-first grounds allege fraudu-lent returns at the voting places in the fourth, Twenty-second—Fraudulent returns for Young in the ninth civil district of Fayette county, and the failure of the sheriff to send an officer to hold an election there.

Twenty-third—Fraudulent returns for Young in the tenth civil district of Fayette county, illegal voting and unlawful ballots, and the returns showing one hundred more votes than there were voters. The twenty-fourth, twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth grounds, respectively, allege fraudulent returns of ballots in favor of Young at the eleventh, twelfth, fourteenth and fif-teenth civil districts of Fayette county. The contestant, after specifying the twenty-seven grounds, of which the above is a synopsis, concludes his protest by saying to Mr. Young: "On these grounds and others, to appear fully by the testimony to be taken, mediately in accordance with them. There are, no doubt, a great many suffering poor in our city, but wish to call the attention of the "charitable disposed" especially to the old Gayoso hotel, for I am more conversant with the suffering of those people than any others, as I have labored more or less for them for over two years. There are women and children in that house who have gone without a morsel of food for twenty-four and thirty-six hours, and during this extreme cold weather have had no fire for the same length of time. Last Thursday night (you remember how bitter cold it was) there was an old man suffering with inflammatory rheumatism, with scant clothing and but little bed-clothing, and without any fire at all. There is an old lady sick in bed, with three small children, without fire or provisions; and another old man, just up from attack of pneumonia, has a blind daughter, with nothing to eat all day yesterday and only a small quantity to-day, with no bed and no fire. This is not all, but let those cases suffice to prove that there is enough suffering in that one building to cal forth our deepest sympathy. Now, I appeal to all who wish it said of them at the great day when all things shall be made known, as you saw one of these an hungered, sick or naked, and fed, ministered to, or clothed them, ye did it unto me," to come forward with a helping hand with wood, coal, pro-visions and clothing. Anything of the kind visions and clothing. Anything of the kind given to those poor people will call down God's blessing on you and yours.
